MA-DMS REVISED PROGRAM OF STUDIES (EFFECTIVE FALL 2012)

PROGRAM PRE-REQUISITE COURSES:
Students from a variety of backgrounds are attracted to this degree program. Therefore, to ensure that each student is adequately prepared for the academic rigors of a graduate-level program, the following courses must be satisfactorily completed as a foundation for graduate studies:

Any two HIST 2XXX introductory level History courses
HIST 3XXX: Any Upper Division History Elective
HIST 4661 (History of Military Thought) or HIST 4961 (Seminar in Military History)
PSCI 2000 (Intro to Politics)
INTR 3000 (International Relations)
OR: 18 undergraduate credits in History, Political Science, and International Relations, including Upper Division coursework in Military and/or Diplomatic History and International Relations.
AND/OR: combination of experience in diplomatic or military affairs

CORE COURSES (12 semester credits)

HIST	6600	Seminar: Military Historiography
HIST	6601	Seminar: Theory and Practice of Diplomacy from Antiquity to the Present
PSCI	6601	Seminar: Diplomacy and International Relations and one of the following courses:
HUM	6601	Seminar: The Military and a Civil Society
PHIL	6600	Seminar: Professional Ethics and the Military

MILITARY AND DIPLOMATIC HISTORY ELECTIVE COURSES (9-15 semester credits)
Choose between three and five of the following courses in history (including at least one diplomatic history course numbered in the HIST 666* series). The number of History and Supporting Field Elective courses combined must total eight (24 semester credits):

HIST	6611	Seminar: War in Ancient History
HIST	6622	Seminar: The Military Revolution
HIST	6624	Seminar: Revolutionary & Napoleonic Warfare
HIST	6627	Seminar: The First World War
HIST	6628	Seminar: The Second World War
HIST	6631	Seminar: Ways of War in China
HIST	6632	Seminar: Ways of War in Japan
HIST	6641	Seminar: The American Way of War
HIST	6643	Seminar: The American Revolution
HIST	6645	Seminar: The American Civil War
HIST	6648	Seminar: 20th Century U.S. Military History
HIST	6650	Seminar: Oil: History, Security, Sustainability
HIST	6658	Seminar: 20th Century Naval Warfare
HIST	6661	Seminar: European Diplomatic History
HIST	6662	Seminar: U.S. Diplomatic History
HIST	6663	Seminar: East Asian Diplomatic History
HIST	6664	Seminar: Middle Eastern Diplomatic History
HIST	6665	Seminar: International History of the Cold War

HIST	6670	Seminar: History of Genocide
HIST	6686	Seminar: War and Society in Wilhlmine Germany, 1871-1918
HIST	6690	Non Paid Internship
HIST	6691	Paid Internship
HIST	6997	Seminar: Directed Readings in History
HIST	6998	Seminar: Special Topics in Diplomatic History
HIST	6999	Seminar: Special Topics in Military History

SUPPORTING FIELD ELECTIVE COURSES (9-15 semester credits)

Chose between three and five Supporting Field Elective courses from at least two of the following Supporting Fields. The number of History and Supporting Field Elective courses combined must total eight (24 semester credits):

Anthropology

ANTH	6601	Seminar: Violence, Conflict, and War

--

Art History

ARTH	6601	Seminar: Artist and Images of War

--

Global Leadership and Sustainable Development

GLSD	6001	Seminar: Power and Social Systems
GLSD	6340	Seminar: Environmental History of the Modern World
GLSD	6350	Seminar: Global Markets in Transition
GLSD	6360	Seminar: Global Competition and Strategy

--

Literature

LIT	6701	Seminar: Literature & the Experience of War

--

Philosophy

PHIL	6611	Seminar: Political Philosophy

--

Political Science

PSCI	6151	Seminar: Global Governance
PSCI	6400	Seminar: Chinese Foreign Policy
PSCI	6451	Seminar: The Military in Latin American Politics
PSCI	6605	Seminar: Islam & Politics
PSCI	6610	Seminar: Politics of Developing Nations
PSCI	6620	Seminar: Peacebuilding & Conflict Management
PSCI	6630	Seminar: National and International Security
PSCI	6650	Seminar: Foreign Intelligence
PSCI	6660	Seminar: Resistance and Rebellion
PSCI	6661	Seminar: Politics of Terrorism
PSCI	6670	Seminar: Democratization and Human Rights
PSCI	6671	Seminar: Transitions to Democracy
PSCI	6680	Seminar: International Negotiating
PSCI	6997	Seminar: Special Topics in International Relations

International Studies

INTR	6300	Seminar: International and Domestic Emergency Management
INTR	6990	Nonpaid Internship
INTR	6991	Paid Internship
INTR	6997	Seminar: Special Topics in International Studies

--

Strategic & Security Studies

STSS	6301	Seminar: China's National Security and Modern Military Doctrine
STSS	6600	Seminar: 20th Century Intelligence Studies
STSS	6666	Seminar: Theory & Practice of Counterinsurgency
STSS	6689	Seminar: 20th Century Deception Operations
STSS	6990	Nonpaid Internship
STSS	6991	Paid Internship

CAPSTONE COURSES (6 semester credits or more)

HIST	7601	Seminar: Research and Writing in Diplomacy & Military Studies
HIST	7602	Thesis Research/Writing in Diplomacy & Military Studies
HIST	7603	Continuing Thesis Research/Writing in Diplomacy & Military Studies (1 Credit)